

Your Way to Success! Preparing for Your Career in Library and Information Science!

Career Workshop Series

Saturday
November 20, 2004
10:30 a.m.–4:00 p.m.

(one hour break for lunch on your own)

Main Library · Room A314
University of Arizona

Refreshments will be served

Workshops are followed by Happy Hour at
Gentle Ben's Brewing Co.
865 E. University Blvd, 4:30 p.m.

Creating Your Own Community: Networking for a New Career

Leslie Kent Kunkel

Academic Advising Coordinator
School of Information Resources and
Library Science · University of Arizona

Leslie Kent Kunkel, MLS UCLA 1987, will talk about creating your own "community" to help you start, and maintain, a productive, interesting, and satisfying library career. Two methods will be used to conceptualize the process of building community: storytelling and using Venn diagrams.

Now How Do I Find a Job?

Mary Feeney

Librarian for Library and
Information Science
University of Arizona Libraries

Learn about online and print resources for finding library jobs, techniques for job hunting, and resources to learn more about "information" careers.

Getting Your Foot in the Door: Moving from Ad to Offer

Ann Eagan

Head of References Services
Cline Library · Northern Arizona
University

How do you make your resume and cover letter stand out? What happens when you make the first cut? What is the interview process? How do you negotiate your job offer? Bring your resume!